

General
Osteopathic
Council

Vince Cullen

Vince qualified at the British College of Osteopathic Medicine (BCOM) in 1988 and has been in practice as an osteopath in Hertfordshire, Essex and Central London.

Vince has worked extensively in osteopathic education - as a lecturer, clinic tutor, assessor and senior manager at BCOM and the European School of Osteopathy, and as a previous Head of Development and a former Director of Professional Standards at the General Osteopathic Council.