August/September issue of The Osteopath now available

5 August 2010

The August/September issue of The Osteopath magazine is now available.

The leading article is about the forthcoming consultation on our practice standards and the issue also includes an update on the development of our revalidation scheme.

Other articles include:

- a brief summary of the July Council meeting;
- quality assuring standards of training;
- research into osteopathic practice;
- our performance review;
- research news;
- update on the Vetting and Barring Scheme.

The Osteopath magazine is published 6 times a year and all UK registered osteopaths receive a printed copy.

Osteopathy students in the UK can buy an annual subscription for £17.00, while the cost to other readers is £24.00 within the UK; £34.00 in Europe; and £47.00 elsewhere in the world. Click here to download a subscription form.
