

Council
20 July 2021
Matters arising

Classification	Private
Purpose	For noting
Issue	This paper addresses any matters arising from the private minutes of Council of May 2021
Recommendation(s)	To note the content of the report.
Financial and resourcing implications	None.
Equality and diversity implications	None.
Communications implications	None.
Annex(es)	None.
Author	Matthew Redford

Background

1. This paper addresses any matters arising from the 111th private minutes of Council. The matters arising are set out below:

Minutes of the 111th private meeting of Council:

Item	Minute	Action	Outcome
Item 4: Regulating healthcare professionals, protecting the public	Paras 5 - 8 refer	That the GOsC consultation response should be prefaced with a statement about our approach. That patient safety be more explicitly drawn out in our response. That the GOsC consultation response be published online and we issue communications around the response to make it understandable for registrants. That named Council members would be used as 'sounding boards' for the development of specific consultation questions.	Completed: the GOsC consultation response had a covering statement which set out our approach to ensuring the future regulatory system enhanced the protection of the public. Completed: the final consultation response contained additional, and clearer references to patient safety. Completed: the consultation response was published online with a news article and a blog from the Chief Executive and Registrar. Completed: Council member views were sought on specific consultation questions and those responses were enhanced and developed further based on feedback received.

Recommendation: To note the content of the report.