Professional Conduct Committee

(Statutory committee)

The Professional Conduct Committee hears cases concerning serious unacceptable conduct, incompetence or criminal convictions. If the committee finds any such case proved, it imposes an appropriate sanction on the osteopath.

It consists of up to 18 members, osteopaths and lay persons, who are not Council members and are appointed to the committee by Council. The Committee may co-opt members subject to Rule 3 of the Statutory Committees' Rules.

The panels that hear individual cases consist of three people, two lay and one osteopath, drawn from members of this committee.
