

Revalidation scheme

Key areas of development include:

- developing standards, guidance and assessment criteria;
- appointing and training assessors;
- developing an example folder of evidence to help osteopaths understand what they need to do;
- further work on the draft scheme;
- evaluating the draft scheme;
- equality and diversity issues;
- research;
- communications and legislation.